

BOLAJI TENIOLA

ASSOCIATE | FURNITURE STUDIO

“THROUGH INVESTIGATIVE RESEARCH INTO MATERIALS AND PROCESSES, I WANT TO CONTINUE TAKING MY PRACTICE ON STRANGE AND EXCITING PATHS, LED BY MY MOTTO ‘DESIGN FOR LIFE’, WHICH AT ITS CORE IS THE BELIEF THAT DESIGN MUST ACCOMMODATE LIFE. I BELIEVE JAMFACTORY OFFERS A UNIQUE MULTIDISCIPLINARY ENVIRONMENT TO HELP MAKE THIS A REALITY.”

BIOGRAPHY

Bolaji Teniola is an interdisciplinary furniture and industrial designer practising across South Australia and Victoria. With a Bachelor of Industrial Design (2012) and Associate Degree in Furniture Design (2020), Bolaji also draws on his experience working for furniture design studios in the Netherlands and Indonesia. His practice utilises an investigative approach to traverse various mediums, exploring materials and processes in search of pragmatic solutions that place equal importance on functionality and aesthetic appeal.
